

Curriculum Enrichment 2024 – 2025

Date	Event	Aims/Objectives	Curriculum Link	Outcomes
Dinnertime curriculum enrichment
Daily	Scooters and balance bikes	To improve fitness, coordination and fine motor skills	PE	Children will show greater understanding of healthy lifestyles. Healthier living may lead to improved concentration and therefore improved standards across the curriculum.
Daily	Reading club in the reading garden	To improve children's reading skills and to enhance a love of literature	English	Standards in English will be raised.
Daily	Football	To develop team work and increase fitness	PE	Standards in PE and sport and competitive sport will be raised.
Daily	Music and Dance	To improve fitness, coordination and teamwork	PE, PSHE	Standards in PE will be raised.
Daily	Construction	To provide an opportunity to practice DT skills and cooperative work and play	DT	Standards in DT will be raised.
Daily	Sand and water	To develop children's manipulative skills and sensory awareness.	DT, all subjects	Children's sensory awareness through a range of subjects improves.
Daily	Maths investigations	To improve children's mathematical skills and especially problem solving and logic.	Maths	Standards in maths will be raised.
Daily	Sketching	To improve children's drawing and sketching skills.	Art	Standards in Art will be raised.

Daily	Writing club	To improve children's writing skills and to improve a love of writing	English	Standards in English will be raised.
Daily	Loom bands	To improve children's fine motor skills	Fine motor skills, all subjects	Subjects that require good fine motor skills are improved.
Daily	Archeology dig	To improve children's eye to hand coordination and motor skills (fine and gross)	History and career pathways	Standards in History and fine motor skills continue to improve.
Daily	Chess	To improve children's mathematical skills and especially problem solving and logic.		